PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE ORDER NO. 2

Along with prior Practice and Procedure Orders entered in this Multidistrict Litigation, this Order shall govern the practice and procedure in those actions transferred to this Court by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation pursuant to the Conditional Transfer Order entered on April 16, 2012, as well as any tag-along-actions thereafter transferred to this Court and any other actions, whether originally filed in this Court or transferred or removed to this Court, that are deemed to be related pursuant to Rule 50.3.1 of this Court's Rules for the Division of Business Among District Judges.

I. LEADERSHIP STRUCTURE

Consistent with advice to the Court at a hearing on May 30, 2012, counsel for the plaintiffs have submitted an application for a proposed leadership structure, agreed upon generally by all plaintiffs' counsel, to guide this litigation and act on behalf of all plaintiffs with respect to matters occurring before this court in this Multidistrict Litigation. The Court has reviewed the qualifications of those proposed to serve in the leadership structure, and has received no objection to the plaintiffs' application from any party. Accordingly, having found them to be properly qualified the court appoints the following persons to serve in the capacities set forth below on behalf of all plaintiffs in the actions described in the first paragraph above:

1. PLAINTIFFS' EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Timothy Becker, of Johnson Becker, PLLC, Minneapolis, Minnesota

Marc Grossman, of Sanders Viener Grossman, LLP, Mineola, New York

II. COST SHARING

As soon as reasonably practicable, the Executive Committee shall submit to the Court a Motion for Approval of Common Benefit Time and Case Costs Assessment for all cases subject to this Order. The motion shall propose an appropriate percentage for both common benefit time and costs to be taxed against every case involving claims within the scope of this Multidistrict Litigation held by law firms who represent clients whose cases are subject to this Order, regardless of whether the case is actually filed in this Multidistrict Litigation at the time the case is resolved.

SO ORDERED:
