NOTIFICATION OF DOCKET ENTRY

This docket entry was made by the Clerk on Monday, June 12, 2017:

MINUTE entry before the Honorable Matthew F. Kennelly: As the Court advised trial counsel after declaring a mistrial earlier today in the Konrad case (No. 15-cv-966), the overall time allocation for the trial to begin on July 5 is reduced by approximately one trial day, to a total of 78 hours, 39 per side. This is based on the Court's observation of four and one-half days of trial in the Konrad case and its understanding of the issues and the evidence in the case that is next up in the AbbVie bellwether schedule, the Mitchell case (No. 14-cv-9178). The Court also proposed permitting each side to use part of its allocation to make mini-summations at appropriate intervals (to be determined) during the trial and directs counsel to consider and confer about this. A telephone status conference is set for 6/16/2017 at 9:15 AM to discuss this and any other procedural or logistical issues relating to the July 5 trial. Counsel are to set up a call-in conference number and are to provide it to chambers by 12:00 noon on 6/15/2017. (mk)

ATTENTION: This notice is being sent pursuant to Rule 77(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or Rule 49(c) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.
