Joint Letter Regarding Nominations for Special Masters

Dear Judge Cote,

Pursuant to Your Honor's November 18, 2022 Order: Post-Conference Submissions (DE 195), the Parties write jointly to apprise the Court of their nominations for Special Masters pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 53(a). Following meet and confer discussions, the Parties have reached agreement on the following nominations for the Court's consideration.

With respect to the Common Benefit Fund Special Master, Plaintiffs propose Amy Collins, of Amy L. Collins, P.C.¹ Defendants have no objection to Ms. Collins' appointment.

With respect to the Special Master designated to oversee the Census process envisioned by the Court, the Parties have conferred and jointly propose Randi Ellis, of Randi Ellis, LLC, as the Census Special Master.² Members of both Plaintiffs' and Defendants' leadership have worked with Ms. Ellis on mass tort projects in the past, and submit that she has the requisite skills and experience to oversee the Census process, and to facilitate or respond to inquiries from the Court regarding the same.

The Parties are also happy to consider any other candidates suggested by the Court, and are available to discuss the above nominations at the Court's convenience.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Kristen L. Richer
