¹The Court previously stayed certain proceedings in the MDL pending resolution of any interlocutory appeal of its Order dated December 22, 2022. See ECF Nos. 3568 & 3610. On December 30, 2022, the Court further clarified that the DD214 and census form requirements are not subject to the stay and that plaintiffs must fulfill their DD214 and census form obligations in accordance with the previously established deadlines. See ECF No. 3615 at 2.

² Under Pretrial Order No. 81, depending on the number of cases per plaintiffs' law firm missing census forms, plaintiffs' counsel had between 60 and 270 days to submit the census forms. Under Pretrial Order No. 18, any newly filed or transferred case had 90 days from the date the case was filed in or transferred into the MDL to submit a census form.
