MDL No. 3047

Case No. 4:22-md-03047-YGR (PHK)

AGENDA AND JOINT STATEMENT
FOR JULY 18, 2025, CASE
MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

Judge: Hon. Yvonne Gonzalez Rogers

Magistrate Judge: Hon. Peter H. Kang

Pursuant to Case Management Order (“CMO”) Nos. 1 and 18, the Parties submit this agenda and joint statement in advance of the July 18, 2025 Case Management Conference (“CMC”).

I. Proposed Agenda for Case Management Conference

- Plaintiffs’ Request for Briefing and Hearing on Sequencing of Initial Trials
- Trial Venue for Breathitt School District Bellwether (“BW”) Case
- Defendants’ Request for 6-Week Extension to Complete Expert Depositions
- Update on Negotiations Regarding Length of MDL Expert Depositions

II. Joint JCCP Update

With few exceptions, the parties have completed simultaneous exchanges of opening and rebuttal reports for all Trial Group 1 experts. Expert depositions are ongoing and will continue through August 27. Sargon motions as to General Causation (“GC”) experts are due July 28. With limited exceptions, all other Sargon motions and all motions in limine for Trial Group 1 cases are due August 29.

Judge Kuhl held CMCs on June 16 and June 30, summarized below and in the minute order attached as Exhibit A. The next CMC is August 6, when Judge Kuhl will also hear argument on the school district (“SD”) plaintiffs’ motion to strike costs in connection with the cases they received leave to voluntarily dismiss pending appeal of her SD demurrer ruling.

Trial Pool Dates. Trial Pool 1: Judge Kuhl set jury selection for the first JCCP trial to begin on November 19, 2025, with the trial to commence the following week. She ordered plaintiffs to disclose in “short order” how long they expect to need for Trial 1, an issue on which the parties continue to confer.

Trial Pool 2: Judge Kuhl set the first Trial Group 2 trial for March 9, 2026. To the extent the Trial Pool 1 trial(s) are not completed by that date, Judge Kuhl will adjust date for the first Trial Group 2 trial; she will not, for example, have a different judge preside over the first Trial Group 2 trial.

Trial Pool 3: Judge Kuhl set the first Trial Group 3 trial for May 11, 2026. If Trial Pool 2 trial(s) are not completed by that date, she will adjust the date for the first Trial Group 3 trial.

Use of Initials to Refer to Trial Pool 1 Plaintiffs at Trial. Judge Kuhl confirmed that plaintiff R.K.C. will be referred to by his first name and initials at trial. She will hear further argument on August 6 on whether plaintiff K.G.M. should be referred to by her initials at trial notwithstanding that she is now an adult, given certain sensitive issues that are expected to arise in her trial.

Sargon Motions as to General Causation Experts. Judge Kuhl ordered that Defendants may file one 15-page Sargon motion addressing cross-cutting bases for exclusion of plaintiffs' GC experts, along with 15-page expert-specific Sargon motions for each expert that Defendants challenge.

Expert Rebuttal Report Deadlines. Plaintiffs elected not to file written rebuttals to any of Defendants' experts' reports by the May 16 and July 3 deadlines for such reports. Judge Kuhl confirmed that any rebuttal opinions plaintiffs' experts intend to present at trial must be disclosed in deposition, with any disputes as to the sufficiency of such disclosures to be resolved at a later time.

Other Discovery-Related Issues. Judge Kuhl invited plaintiffs to file a motion seeking relief regarding their request for enhanced account identification; and provided guidance for resolving disputes relating to discovery from non-Defendant apps used by the Trial Group 1 plaintiffs.

III. Joint Discovery Update

A copy of the following discovery-related submissions and orders, which were (or will by July 18 have been) filed or issued since the last CMC Statement was filed, will be sent by email to Judge Gonzalez Rogers after this CMC Statement is filed (numbers refer to ECF docket numbers):

- Joint Letter Brief ("JLB") Re Frances Haugen Deposition and Document Subpoena (2061)
- Order (2070) on JLB (1974) Re YouTube's Production from Noncustodial Source "B"
- Order (2091) Granting Stip. (2090) Extending Deadlines to Complete State Witness Depositions
- Stipulated Protocols for Medical Evaluations of Plaintiffs D'Orazio (ECF 2084), Melton (ECF 2085), Clevenger (ECF 2093), Mullen (ECF 2094), and Smith (ECF 2095)

IV. Other Joint Updates

A. Appeals

Collateral Order Appeals. Merits briefing is currently underway in the Ninth Circuit collateral order appeal and conditional cross-appeals. On March 31, 2025, Meta filed its opening brief, in which TikTok joined. On June 23, the State AGs and Personal Injury ("PI") and SD Plaintiffs filed their opening-answer merits briefs in support of their conditional cross-appeals and in response to Meta's opening brief. Meta’s answering-reply brief is due August 22. The State AGs’ and PISD Plaintiffs’ optional cross-appeal reply briefs are due 21 days later. Meanwhile, the Parties have continued to advance these cases through all aspects of fact and expert discovery.

Writ of Mandamus by California re Agency Discovery Order. The Ninth Circuit has set oral argument on California’s writ of mandamus for August 12, 2025, in San Francisco. Other State AGs have moved to intervene; they, along with certain California state agencies, have also moved for oral argument time. The Ninth Circuit has not yet ruled on those motions.

B. Anticipated Request for Further Extension of AG-Specific Expert Deadlines

Meta and the State AGs anticipate seeking a further extension of the expert report and deposition deadlines related to two AG-specific experts. The extension will not impact any other deadlines, including for Rule 702 and summary judgment motions as to the AGs’ AG-specific experts and claims.

V. Other Issues

A. Plaintiffs’ Request for Briefing and Hearing on Sequencing of Initial Trials

Plaintiffs’ Position: Plaintiffs respectfully ask the Court to set a hearing on the order for initial trials. The date for this hearing is currently set as “TBD” under the existing case schedule. See CMO 18 (ECF No. 1290). Plaintiffs ask the Court to set this hearing for August 20, the date of the next CMC, with briefing submitted prior thereto. Alternatively, and as detailed below, Plaintiffs ask the Court to move the deadlines for certain key pre-trial activities until sequencing is resolved.¹

As to the PISD cases, the Court has selected six SD BWs (three plaintiff and three defense picks) and five PI BWs (three plaintiff and two defense picks); indicated that two of these cases will be tried outside of Oakland; and tentatively suggested alternating plaintiff and defense picks. The AG case for its part will be trial-ready at the latest after the initial PISD BW trial. In addition, as the Court is aware, the JCCP court is set to try PI cases in rapid succession starting in late November of this year.

¹ PISD Plaintiffs reached out to Defendants on June 25 asking to meet and confer on Plaintiffs’ sequencing request to the Court; Defendants declined.

Given that there are a number of possible permutations to the order in which the cases could be tried in this Court, to simplify the process and promote efficiency, Plaintiffs propose that the first three trials proceed as follows: one side's pick of an SD case, followed by the AG trial, and then the other side's pick of an SD case. Plaintiffs request that the Court order briefing to determine the two SD cases to be tried first, with the matter to be heard at the August hearing. In the alternative, Plaintiffs request that Court provide guidance (with briefing if the Court sees fit) on other means of narrowing the pool of initial trial candidates—for example, by determining the type of PISD BW case to be tried first (SD or PI) and whether those case(s) will be one(s) that can be tried in Oakland.

Plaintiffs respectfully submit that such narrowing would allow the parties and the Court to streamline a number of pretrial tasks. Limiting the pool for the initial trials would allow the parties at this juncture to exchange—and file with the Court—substantially fewer sets of proposed jury instructions (mapping to the applicable state law for each PI and SD case) than the current eleven BWs.² Likewise, it would allow the parties to focus on exchanging preliminary witness lists pertinent to the initial trial(s), rather than trading witness lists that could become outdated for trials commencing potentially much later.³ Pre-trial activities like proposed survey monkey questions for prospective jurors could also be affected; for instance, the parties to the PISD BW cases may vary their questions depending on whether a non-Oakland jury pool is or is not at issue.

If the Court is disinclined to resolve these aspects of sequencing of the trial BWs at the August CMC, then Plaintiffs respectfully request that the pre-trial deadlines related to witness lists and discovery of newly disclosed witnesses—at least as to PISD case-specific (versus general liability) witnesses—and jury instructions be reset until after sequencing is decided. In any event, Plaintiffs are ready, willing, and able to begin trying the BW cases and the AG case in 2026, at the earliest opportunity available to the Court.

² CMO No. 18 provides that the parties to PISD BW cases are to exchange proposed jury instructions on September 22 and file proposed/disputed instructions on October 27, and ECF No. 1955 sets these dates as December 12 and January 23, 2026 for the AG case.

³ CMO No. 18 provides that preliminary witness lists are to be exchanged on September 10 for all PISD BW cases and the AG case.

Defendants' Position: Defendants agree with Plaintiffs' in-the-alternative proposal that the pre-trial deadlines related to witness lists and jury instructions be suspended, with those deadlines to renew a reasonable period of time before the date of the first trial, whenever that is set. For the reasons stated below, however, it would be premature to sequence cases for trial at this juncture. To the extent the Court nonetheless wishes to do so in the near future, Defendants respectfully request the opportunity to submit more fulsome briefing before the issue is discussed with the Court, as Plaintiffs shared their sequencing proposal with Defendants for the first time just days before this CMC Statement was due, and without first holding any conferrals.⁴ For an issue of this magnitude, Defendants should be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consider Plaintiffs' proposal and respond with a concrete alternative.

This is the second time Plaintiffs have sought to establish a sequence for trials in this MDL— notwithstanding that the collateral order appeal and cross-appeals remain pending. At the April CMC, PI/SD Plaintiffs asked the Court to determine which PI/SD cases would proceed to trial first in the MDL. 4/23/25 MDL CMC Tr. at 7:1-8. In response, the Court made clear that it would need to resolve MSJs prior to determining trial sequencing. Id. at 7:9-19 (“the issue of sequencing is premature”). MSJ briefing will not be completed until the end of November in the PI/SD cases (see CMO 18 at 4), or until the end of February in the AG cases (see ECF 1955 at 5). The Court’s approach makes good sense for multiple reasons. First, it allows briefing of dispositive issues across a range of cases, which progresses those cases and provides the Parties with critical information about which types of cases (if any) cannot proceed and which (if any) can. Second, depending on the outcome of MSJs, a BW case that was otherwise set for trial could fall out of the MDL. Summary judgment rulings will also significantly impact both jury instructions and witness lists. The Court should therefore suspend the current deadlines related to those items and defer any trial sequencing determination until after MSJs are resolved.

Perhaps more importantly, trials in these cases should not proceed until the Ninth Circuit resolves the pending collateral order appeal and cross-appeals. Meta and TikTok’s appeal addresses the ⁴ Defendants did not “decline[]” a conferral on Plaintiffs’ sequencing proposal; they responded to an inquiry from Plaintiffs about raising this issue with the Court by directing them to its prior guidance.

1 application of Section 230 to the failure-to-warn claims asserted by Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs have cross-
2 appealed this Court's holding that certain features are immune from design-defect claims pursuant to
3 Section 230. Through their cross-appeals, Plaintiffs are seeking to have those design-defect claims
4 restored to this action. The State AGs previously sought to have the same issues subject to the cross-
5 appeals certified for appeal to the Ninth Circuit under Section 1292(b). At that time, both this Court and
6 the AGs recognized that certification of those issues would "impact[their] ability to go to trial." 2/12/25
7 MDL CMC Tr. at 48:21-23. The Plaintiffs' cross-appeals likewise impact their ability to go to trial at 8 this juncture. Until the Ninth Circuit issues its decision, we will not know whether the slew of claims
9 subject to the cross-appeals will be restored to this case. Defendants therefore respectfully submit that 10 the Court should defer setting trials until the appeals are resolved.⁵

11 B. Trial Venue for Breathitt School District Bellwether Case

12 Plaintiffs' Position: The PISD Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court consider holding the 13 trial for the Breathitt School District case in the Eastern District of Kentucky (Pikeville), as an 14 alternative to the Eureka courthouse. During the June 13 hearing on SD BW selection, the Court
15 indicated it would hold trial in Eureka to ensure a jury pool reflective of the local community relevant to 16 the case. Holding trial in the Eastern District of Kentucky (Pikeville)—the home state and federal 17 judicial district of the Breathitt School District—would directly serve that goal by drawing a jury from 18 the local region, and would conserve the limited resources of this small district. PISD Plaintiffs
19 understand that the Court previously obtained approval from the Sixth Circuit for an intercircuit
20 assignment in connection with the Craig PI BW discovery pool case, which may constitute or facilitate 21 the necessary authorization to conduct trial in Kentucky. Accordingly, in the interest of efficiency and 22

24
25 ⁵ Defendants are mindful, particularly as they approach the September 24 deadline to file Rule 702
26 motions and MSJs, of the impact of the pending appeal and cross-appeals on such motions as well.
27
28

1 fidelity to the local nature of the dispute, the PISD Plaintiffs respectfully ask the Court to consider this
2 alternative venue

3 Defendants' Position: Defendants believe it is premature to resolve Plaintiffs' request to hold
4 the Breathitt trial in Kentucky, which they raised only recently; at this time, Defendants do not consent,
5 pending further consideration of the issue at a more appropriate juncture.⁶ At present, the order for trials
6 has not been set (and should not be set) and MSJs have not been decided. There is no reason this issue
7 needs to be decided now, and Defendants' current lack of consent should be dispositive.

8 Defendants do not believe this case can be tried outside N.D. Cal. without their consent. This 9 Court established an April 25, 2024 deadline to file Lexecon objections, and made clear that "[s]hould a
10 party fail to file an objection, that party will be deemed to have waived any rights under Lexecon and to 11 have agreed to have their case tried by this Court." CMO No. 10 at 2 & n.5. Breathitt knowingly and 12 voluntarily waived Lexecon by failing to file a timely objection, which Defendants relied on during the 13 BW selection process. At least absent a showing of fraud, duress, or similar circumstances, Breathitt
14 may not withdraw its Lexecon waiver. See, e.g., In re Fosamax Prods. Liab. Litig., 2011 WL 1584584,
15 at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 27, 2011). Breathitt has not even attempted to make such a showing; nor could it.
16 While Plaintiffs reference "drawing a jury from the local region" and the "costs" of litigating in this
17 Court, those factors were known to Breathitt when it decided not to file a timely Lexecon objection.
18 Permitting a unilateral revocation of Breathitt's Lexecon waiver is especially unwarranted because it
19 presumably waived Lexecon so that it could be in the BW trial pool. Now that it is in that pool, it should 20 not be permitted to turn around and unilaterally withdraw its waiver.

21 In short, Defendants are open to considering whether to consent to a trial in Pikeville at an 22 appropriate time, after MSJs are decided and a trial order is set (assuming the Court is open to such a 23 possibility and such a transfer could be effectuated). Defendants, however, believe that this issue is 24 premature and need not be decided at this time.

25 _____
26
27 ⁶ Breathitt County is part of EDKY's Lexington division, not the Pikeville division to which Plaintiffs 28 seek transfer. To be clear, Defendants do not believe there would be anything improper about a transfer to Pikeville if all Parties consented down the road; they simply wish to flag this issue for the Court.

C. Defendants' Request for 6-Week Extension to Complete Expert Depositions (Unopposed by AGs)

Defendants' Position: Defendants respectfully request a 6-week extension of the expert discovery deadline (from August 27 to October 8) to allow adequate time for both sides to take depositions of the large number of experts who have submitted reports across the JCCP and MDL, with a commensurate extension of the remaining pretrial deadlines. Only the PI/SD Plaintiffs oppose Defendants' request.

The Parties have collectively disclosed over 60 experts in the JCCP and over 70 experts in the MDL. This includes 30 experts disclosed by the MDL PI/SD Plaintiffs and State AGs—50% more than they told the Court last Fall they would disclose. See 10/25/24 MDL CMC Tr. at 16:22-:17-11 (Plaintiffs' counsel confirming that they are "going to have 20 experts" "between all of the plaintiffs"). Some of these experts have submitted multiple (as many as seven) reports on different topics and/or different BW plaintiffs. Because the MDL and JCCP Courts set different schedules for expert discovery, depositions of GC experts were well underway in the JCCP before MDL experts were fully disclosed. Nevertheless, while the Parties continue to work to coordinate across the proceedings to the extent there is overlap between the experts, there remain a large number of expert depositions to be completed in the JCCP, and an even larger number in the MDL (particularly since the MDL also includes SD and AG Plaintiffs) before expert discovery closes on August 27. The Parties have completed 30 depositions to date, with at least 60 additional depositions yet to occur.

There is no reason for the Parties to be rushing through expert depositions in the MDL, particularly when the collateral order appeal and cross-appeals remain pending, which impacts when a trial could go forward. A 6-week extension is warranted to allow more time for this important phase of the case to be completed with the attention and care it deserves. To be clear, this issue is separate from the deposition length issue discussed infra Part V.D. Defendants do not argue that the expert discovery deadline should be extended to accommodate longer depositions; rather, an extension is needed to accommodate the sheer number of depositions that will need to be taken.

State AGs' Position: The State AGs do not oppose Defendants' request to extend the expert deposition period that currently ends on August 27, 2025, including because the extension would not

1 affect the current deadlines for dispositive motions briefing for the AG case. The State AGs do not adopt
 2 Meta's arguments in support thereof, which address more than timing issues for these depositions.

3 PISD Plaintiffs' Position: PISD Plaintiffs oppose Defendants' request to extend the expert
 4 deposition period by six weeks and to delay remaining pretrial deadlines accordingly. Defendants'
 5 request is a solution in search of a problem, untethered to any demonstrated inability to complete
 6 depositions within the time already provided under the current schedule.

7 First, Defendants have already had ample opportunity to depose a number of the experts at issue,
 8 whose JCCP reports are highly similar if not identical to those submitted in the MDL. Expert
 9 depositions have been underway in the JCCP for more than a month, and many of the experts designated
 10 in both proceedings have already sat for depositions, some for multiple days and for as long as 12
 11 hours⁷. Defendants have had (and continue to have) the opportunity to coordinate deposition scheduling
 12 across the JCCP and MDL, and to avoid duplication wherever feasible. The notion that more time is 13 needed to manage "overlap" is unconvincing, especially since Defendants have already questioned many 14 of these witnesses and know their opinions well.

15 Second, Defendants have not identified any specific instances in which they have been unable to 16 schedule or complete an expert deposition due to scheduling constraints, nor identified any actual 17 prejudice that will result from proceeding under the current expert discovery deadline. Defendants point
 18 to the number of experts (significantly higher for Defendants than for Plaintiffs⁸) and the length of 19 reports, but such volume is not unusual for large-scale MDL litigation and does not justify a blanket
 20 extension. Courts routinely manage large expert slates without wholesale schedule shifts. Moreover,
 21 Defendants' suggestion that an extension is appropriate due to pending collateral appeals fails.

22
 24
 25 ⁷ Plaintiffs' proposal for 5 or 6 hours for two experts is based on them each having been deposed for 8.5
 26 hours in the JCCP on virtually identical reports; all Defendants had the opportunity to (and did) question
 27 at those depositions, and can use the transcripts in this litigation as well. For experts not yet deposed
 28 Plaintiffs have proposed at least 7 hours each, per the Federal Rules.

⁸ To date, Defendants have disclosed 47 experts across the JCCP and MDL—with more experts expected by today's specific causation deadline—compared to 28 retained experts disclosed by Plaintiffs.

Defendants have not obtained a stay pending appeal, nor have they demonstrated that the appeals will impact the current discovery schedule or the timing of trial. The mere existence of an appeal—particularly one that has not altered the pace of proceedings to date—is not a reason to delay expert discovery. Plaintiffs remain committed to preparing this case for a first trial in the first quarter of 2026, and the Court’s existing schedule is well-calibrated to that goal.

Finally, as discussed below with respect to the length of expert depositions, if Defendants believe they need additional time to depose particular experts in excess of the time they have already spent in the JCCP and/or in addition to the limits provided by the Federal Rules, they should bring those matters before Judge Kang, rather than seek to upend the entire schedule for speculative reasons. A generalized extension of the schedule—disrupting the broader case timeline—is neither warranted nor efficient.

For these reasons, the Court should deny Defendants’ request to extend the expert deposition period.

D. Update on Negotiations Regarding Length of MDL Expert Depositions

Defendants’ Position: Plaintiffs seek to limit the depositions of experts who have submitted multiple reports and/or who have given opinions across a slew of separate cases—the MDL and JCCP PI cases, MDL SD cases, MDL AG cases, and, remarkably, cases brought by State AGs against Meta in various state courts—to between 5 and 7.5 hours (with the precise time offered varying by expert), plus “1 hour for any opinions unique to non-MDL states.” These proposed draconian limits would permit Defendants even less time than the Federal Rules provide in a run-of-the-mill case. See, e.g., Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(d)(1) (limiting depositions to “1 day of 7 hours”). They also ignore that Defendants agreed to truncate their time to depose Plaintiffs’ JCCP experts on the assumption that Defendants would have additional time in the MDL with overlapping experts. Plaintiffs’ proposed limits are also inconsistent with Plaintiffs’ insistence that time beyond the 7-hour default was necessary to question Defendants’ current and former employees “in light of the scope and complexity of this litigation” (and that the 12-hour per-deposition limit that Magistrate Judge Kang ultimately set must exclude non-MDL States, who were allowed to question Meta’s witnesses even longer). ECF 617 at 7. Of note, when those fact witnesses were deposed, they were being asked to give up time they would otherwise devote to their work; expert witnesses, by contrast, are doing their job when they testify.

1 The volume and length of Plaintiffs' expert reports reinforces the need for Defendants to have
 2 ample time to depose each expert. Plaintiffs' experts have issued reports containing up to 406 pages of 3 opinions in reliance on tens of thousands of pages of materials. For example, expert Stuart Murray has 4 submitted four MDL reports, one on general issues (including new opinions not included in his JCCP
 5 report) and three PI BW case-specific reports. The reports total 305 pages and cover BW-specific
 6 medical diagnoses, records, and treatment plans for three of the five PI BW plaintiffs. Nonetheless,
 7 Plaintiffs have suggested a total combined deposition time of 7 hours. In a litigation of this scale and
 8 complexity, each Defendant needs a fair opportunity to explore and challenge the opinions of each
 9 expert as to that Defendant, in each different case in which it is being offered.

10 Plaintiffs' argument that "the claims have the same factual underpinnings" ignores that these are 11 all different cases brought by different Plaintiffs against different Defendants. For example, the AGs
 12 have brought suit only against Meta, such that a trial will be focused on Meta alone. Meta is entitled to 13 fully explore the AGs' experts' opinions as to Meta without having to split that time with co-Defendants
 14 not in the AGs' cases. Plaintiffs' insistence that Defendants combine and share all deposition time is 15 also inadministrable: the MDL AGs have no right to access confidential material of non-Meta
 16 Defendants (whom the AGs did not sue); yet the non-Meta Defendants will need to question the PI/SD
 17 and AG Plaintiffs' shared experts about their opinions related to those Defendants, which will invariably 18 involve a discussion of their confidential materials. Defendants intend to present this dispute soon, and 19 request guidance on whether it should be presented to Your Honor or to Magistrate Judge Kang.

20 Plaintiffs' Position: Defendants' complaints about proposed deposition limits mischaracterize
 21 both Plaintiffs' position and the structure of this litigation. Plaintiffs are not seeking "draconian" limits
 22 on expert depositions. What Plaintiffs have proposed is a reasonable, coordinated approach that accounts
 23 for prior deposition time in the JCCP and seeks to avoid unnecessary duplication across jurisdictions.

24 In reality, Defendants are not merely seeking more than 7 hours of deposition time for a number
 25 of these experts (regardless of whether they have been deposed in the JCCP): they are seeking over 20
 26 hours of deposition time for experts shared by PI/SD Plaintiffs and the various MDL and/or state court
 27 AG Plaintiffs, including those who have already been or will be deposed in the JCCP. Defendants'
 28 proposal would effectively allow them to re-depose the same experts multiple times under the guise of

1 jurisdictional distinctions, even where the reports are nearly-identical across jurisdictions but for their
2 opinions (if any) specific to non-Meta Defendants, who the AGs have not named.

3 While Meta has argued that this is necessitated by alleged differences in causes of action brought
4 by the AGs versus the PI/SD Plaintiffs, this is nonsensical: the claims have the same factual
5 underpinnings, and these are not legal experts. These experts are testifying as to whether social media
6 has been a significant factor in the decline in teen mental health and whether it is designed to be
7 addictive; which causes of action a category of Plaintiffs brings has no relevance to their opinions.
8 Defendants' proposal is thus far from consistent with the across-jurisdiction deposition coordination
9 previously ordered by Judge Kang for efficiency purposes, and instead is a recipe for redundancy and 10 waste of resources

11 To the extent Defendants believe additional time is justified for specific experts based on unique,
12 non-overlapping opinions, they may raise that issue with Judge Kang. But blanket requests for double-
13 and triple-time across jurisdictions—especially where Defendants have already questioned these 14 experts—are unjustified.

Court and counsel discuss issues raised in the Joint Report filed 6/12/25.

With respect to whether K G-M, who is now no longer a minor, may be referred to at trial by her full name, counsel shall file simultaneous briefs of no longer than 5 pages per side addressing (1) whether there are highly likely to be sensitive, private matters as to K G-M, such as sexual activity or sexual assault, which will be part of the testimony of the trial of her claims, and (2) whether California case law supports anonymizing this plaintiff at trial in light of such likely testimony. Such briefs are to be filed 5 days prior to the next status conference and the court will hear argument on that issue at the next status conference (unless counsel stipulate that the briefing and argument on this issue can wait until a following status conference).

The trial date for bellwether trial pool No. 1 is advanced to Nov. 19, 2025 at 9:00 am.

The court accepts the parties' agreed dates for pretrial for bellwether trial pool Nos. 2 and 3, except that the FSC and MSJ/MSAdj hearing for trial pool No. 2 shall be Feb. 3, 2026 at 1:45 pm and the FSC and MSJ/MSAdj hearing for trial pool No. 3 shall be Apr. 7, 2026 at 1:45 pm. Liaison counsel shall file a stipulation and proposed order setting forth the pretrial dates for trial pool Nos. 2 and 3.

Regarding the production of Chat GPT content for RKC, the court is of the view that a further deposition of RKC regarding statements concerning deletion is appropriate. Other topics may also be appropriate for this further deposition in light of the Chat GPT content, but the court defers that issue to a later date when all productions of content/data from apps used by RKC are complete or substantially complete.

Counsel are to meet and confer in the next week to discuss each app purportedly used by each bellwether trial pool No. 1 plaintiff, information Defendants may have about such usage, and what steps Plaintiffs have taken to produce information related to the usage by each Plaintiff of each app. Plaintiffs are to produce all responsive documents or data they receive from third parties or have downloaded from a plaintiff's device within one week of having obtained such documents or data.

Regarding Sargon motions, the court sets the following page limits. The court will allow 15 pages per expert for each opening brief, as provided by the rules. Because this is a complex case, and because Defendants have made a persuasive argument that they want to present methodological issues that are common across the general causation arguments (rather than repeating those arguments in each individual motion in limine), the court will allow an additional opening brief of 15 pages on common issues. In opposition briefs, Plaintiffs may respond to each individual motion in limine brief with the same number of pages (15 pages), and may respond to the omnibus brief with the same number of pages (15 pages), or, if Plaintiffs wish, they may spread the additional 15 pages over the oppositions to individual motions in limine without filing a specific response to the omnibus brief.

Regarding whether Plaintiffs were required to provide rebuttal expert reports from their previously designated experts in order for those experts to be able to criticize or counter the opinions of defense experts on the same topic of expert testimony, the court will resolve any such issues in a particular context of a disagreement over what a particular expert may testify to. The court does offer a tentative view, that the supplemental designation was for additional experts who would serve as rebuttal experts and for exchange of expert reports of those experts. As to subjects of testimony already specified in the initial designations and reports, criticisms of experts of the other side on the same subject is within the scope of the initial designation and does not require a supplemental report.

Counsel are to meet and confer within the next week to discuss the Plaintiffs' recent discovery demands and which of those demands will be responded to by Defendants.

After discussing of Plaintiffs' suggestion that Defendants should provide "enhanced account identification," the court indicates that Plaintiffs may file a motion to seek such relief.

The court states that the time spent on the PMQ data depositions is separate from the overall time Magistrate Judge Kang has provided for depositions that may be taken by Plaintiffs of Defendants.

Jury Trial Bellwether Trail Pool Plnts #1 is scheduled for 11/19/2025 at 09:00 AM in Department 12 at Spring Street Courthouse on cases 22-CIV-03178, 22-CIV-03731, 22-CV-066, 22CV019089, 22CV409251, 22SMCV02834, 22SMCV02838, 22SMCV02875, 22STCV21355, 22STCV24332, 22STCV26778, 22STCV26829, 22STCV28200, 22STCV28201, 22STCV28202, 22STCV28204, 22STCV31543, 22STCV36006, 22STCV36184, 22STCV37068, 22STCV38197, 22STCV38204, 22STCV38670, 22STCV38918,
